

In Mesa, Arizona, over 59% of our elementary aged students qualify for free or reduced lunch at school. For many of these children their only food comes from the school lunch programs. Unfortunately, many have little or no food to eat on the weekends. They often go to bed hungry.

AzBrainfood is a non-profit organization whose goal is to discretely provide a backpack of food to feed these children on the weekend. By so doing, we hope that each child will return to school every Monday morning mentally aware and physically able to concentrate.

AzBrainfood is local, community, volunteers. Our intention is to see that every child in the Mesa Public Schools has the tools, including valuable nutrition, they need to succeed, grow and learn.
